

The New Consciousness

Transitioning from Linear Consciousness to Multidimensional Consciousness

I will go into Creation unfolding from a consciousness perspective. As I delve into the different aspects of consciousness achieved at various levels of densities of consciousness. So that we may understand more of why we are here. While emphasizing what is possible to bring forth by embodying these expanded states of Being and awareness.

Our inherent and innate “inner” attributes and abilities are coming “online” in greater ways. And as we transition to a multidimensional conscious focus of awareness, we intuitively bring these “higher” attributes online. As we change/activate our own DNA on a consciousness level, we expand into more of who we are.

All of this advanced knowledge has been gathered and brought forth to me through my various contacts with stellar and cosmic families and teachers. As these are working in tandem with our own evolution into the “new” human, known as Homo Galacticus. Bringing forth the 6th root race, in a cosmic evolutionary sense for humanity. As we prepare ourselves to return to the stars.

I will go into my own “awakening” experience. As I was awakened by my stellar family contacts, in a very visceral way. As they “reminded” me, as to why I am here. And what I have to offer, as a direct participant in this most momentous of era or times. Known as the ascension of humanity.

By “re-membering” who we are, and expanding our awareness, we recognize that we are in a truly “open-source” system. In which we have access to much greater amounts of information and truth, from our within to the without. And this access has never been greater. For those desirous of knowing, the floodgates of knowledge have been let loose.

All of us have been receiving much, with respect to this transition. Mainly from the planes we all journey to when we sleep. For when we “rest” we actually shed much of our “self-imposed” constraints and limitations. During these states we commune with many Beings, many of which are non-terrestrial, or non-residents in our plane of existence. As we work with the rest of the collective to bring about the greatest expansion possible for each and every one of us. Together, as a whole; and individually as a persona/self.

Join me in expanding our awareness. As we are bringing forth the greatest timeline for this transition, here and now. As we “birth” the greatest Unity Consciousness construct for humanity. Instilling wisdom for generations to come.
